

PLATO'S CAVE RIFF

Truth or habit
Light or shadow
Break the chains
Or stay safe?

Truth is hard
It's all we have
There's no clap after
No back to the basics.

It's beginning again
Beginning at the beginning again

Every word new
Every thought in its own room
Every feeling out of hiding

Beginning at finding

Finding each other here
Clearing the air.
Where have we been?
Don't care?
Where are we going?
Where are we going?
Are you going?

Going to

FREE YOUR MIND. 1999.

ORACLE & ARCHITECT RIFF

Who started it?

Whatever the answer is

We are part of it.

Enough free minds

Can close caves

No matter how clever

The design is.

Do you need an oracle to believe this?

Tell you you can do this?

An oracle who is part of it

So can't really tell you anything you need to know.

'Let it go'.

An oracle brings nothing new.

Aphorisms and insta posts

Believing in you

Won't change your code.

Her cookies sedate

Her warmth placates

Go to the place

Which scares you most -

The architect.

Get the plans and change them.

That is all you need to know.

Go. Now. Together.
