A couple of months ago, my mum was hanging up the washing and was looking in my hamster cage. She noticed my hamster curled up in a ball and she said hi. My hamster didn't answer like she normally does. So my mum opened the cage and stroked her... still no answer. (I was asleep when it happened). My mum started panicking. She came upstairs and started crying herself to sleep. I woke up in the morning and she told me the news. I cried and hugged the box she was in (the hamster) and took a picture of her to school to cuddle. My teacher (Mr Comer) put a song on that reminded me of Squishy (the hamster) and I cried so hard my eyes started stinging.

To this day, I still think about her.

If you lose a competition, remember there is always another chance. Like last year we lost in the semi-final but on Sunday the 16th of June 2024 we are in the final. Yes it's sad losing, but it gets even better saying "We won this year but didn't quite make it last year"

I hope there is less cyberbullying because people start feeling sad that they don't have what other people have. I hope it will be different because people start feeling like they should not be allowed to have what other people have. I also think this because people feel that they don't fit in, and it is not very nice. People take advantage that they are not saying it to their face but it hurts just as much.

I am here to tell you how to play basketball because you might not have this sport anymore. Firstly, a basketball and two basketball hoops and 20 players. That is what you will need first. There are two basketball hoops, one on one side and the other on the other side. You will need 10 players per team.

To play, 1 player will have the ball, and the other team will try to get the ball off of you. You will pass the ball to your teammates and try to get the ball in the other team's hoop. And that is how to play basketball. Hopefully you will play it.

Fruit Salad

Firstly, you need logs / chairs to start. You also need to choose your fruit names. You can make one up or you can use pre-made names. Next, you need a person to shout out the fruit name and if your name is said, you need to move to a log/chair or space. If they say fruit salad, everybody moves to a different space but you only have 5 seconds to move. If you don't move in 5 seconds you'll become the teller and that's how you play.

The Eras Tour was launched in 2023 and ended in 2024. Taylor Swift always supported and helped her fans who were called Swifties. For example, when she was in Sydney, Australia a fan went to the tour and sadly passed away in the second song, so Taylor comforted her family and in the next show she paid tribute to her. Building on this, during the UK shows and others she always gave help to who needed it. The lesson from this is to believe in yourself and help others.

It was the 26th December 2023. I was chilling in my room at my nan's house. My nan wasn't home. I didn't think anything of it at first, but then one hour passed. "Where could she be?" I made some drawings inside my new art book I got for Christmas but then "CLINK!" The key went against the door. "THAT'S MY NAN!" I shouted while running down the stairs. There my nan was holding.... A little tiny dashhound. I was ecstatic. I didn't know how to feel. I had been wanting a puppy for 2 years, and there she was! I got to name her so I called her.... Millie! I loved Millie, she became my very best friend. We played together, went on walks, and went to the parks together. She was so cute but she was a yapper. And still to this day she is my very best friend.

I was at school, casually eating my lunch when... my best friend waved at me from the table a few seats away. I waved back at her. Suddenly, something green and tiny FLEW through the air and landed on the table next to me. Just then, another one flew past me and landed in front of me. What is this? I inspected it to find out it was a PEA. My best friend was throwing peas at me. PING. ZOOM. 1 by 1, each pea landed next to me. Then I had an amazing, stupid idea! I shall throw them back. I launched 1 singular pea at her and it landed on her nose! Now this was pure CHAOS!!! Pea after pea, ping after ping (this was way less dramatic by the way). War was on! Well... pea wars to be precise. And that's my amazing story about PEAS. WE ARE FRIENDS. NO PEAS WERE HARMED (okay maybe three).

Doing your sketch first helps. Don't do outlines straight. Add in dimension and don't do it straight (again). Leave spaces to make it better. Only add colour if you have planned it out and it looks good. At the end of the day, you need to figure out what's best for it. Digital art is super helpful for everything. Add in dimension to your art such as separating your drawing into basic shapes. Perfect. You are an artist! You are good at art.

I felt hot and I could not believe what had happened. After I went downstairs to get some cashew nuts and I saw my dad eating them all. There is no cashew nuts because of my stupid pea-brained dad after he munched them up right in front of my face and that was just devastating and something I did not want to see.

Once I had the fear of losing a pet and once we got a call from the vet saying that my cat Milo had to get put down. I didn't want to have to go through it again, but I actually did. I lost a cat called Taz. Fear makes you feel sad. I'm also fearful about having my tonsils removed because I'll have to have anaesthetic. Whenever you need help with fear maybe call a friend, like I do with Ella. And I have a blanket what my cats got put down on, and holding the blanket makes me feel sad because of memories.
